Hymn 701 All the way my Savior leads me

- 1 All the way my Savior leads me; What have I to ask beside?
Can I doubt His tender mercy, Who through life has been my Guide?
Heav'nly peace, divinest comfort, Here by faith in Him to dwell!
For I know, whate'er befall me, Jesus doeth all things well,
For I know, whate'er befall me, Jesus doeth all things well.

- 2 All the way my Savior leads me, Cheers each winding path I tread,
Gives me grace for every trial, Feeds me with the living bread.
Though my weary steps may falter, And my soul athirst may be,
Gushing from the Rock before me, Lo! a spring of joy I see,
Gushing from the Rock before me, Lo! a spring of joy I see.

- 3 All the way my Savior leads me; Oh, the fullness of His grace!
Perfect rest to me is promised In my Father's blest embrace.
When my spirit, clothed immortal, Wings its flight to realms of day,
This my song through endless ages: Jesus led me all the way,
This my song through endless ages: Jesus led me all the way.

Brief Background of the Hymn

Fanny Crosby (1820-1915) was one of the most prolific hymnists in history, writing more than 8,000 hymns and gospel songs. This hymn is considered one of Fanny's best known hymns. In her autobiography, Fanny wrote that this was her first hymn to be set to music by Robert Lowry (1826-1899), who also composed the music for the hymn "I need Thee every hour" (hymn 371 that we introduced before). The hymn was first published in 1875.

Fanny was blind her whole life. When she was in her 80s, she mentioned the process of her blindness in her autobiography: when she was only 6 months old, one day, she had infection to her eyes. Unfortunately, the family doctor was away, and another man—pretending to be a certified doctor—treated her by prescribing hot mustard poultices to be applied to her eyes. The treatment left her blind. When the doctor was revealed to be a quack, he disappeared. Fanny testified that she never hated that doctor. She believed what had happened was God's sovereign arrangement according to His loving and marvelous will, so that she would be sanctified to serve Him until then. It is because Fanny had such a realization that she could write this hymn to declare "All the way my Savior leads me; What have I to ask beside? Can I doubt His tender mercy, Who through life has been my Guide? Heav'nly peace, divinest comfort, Here by faith in Him to dwell! For I know, whate'er befall me, Jesus doeth all things well." May this also be our declaration!
