Nourishment

- Holy Word for Morning Revival: 2023 December Semi-Annual Training Message One Fighting for the Good Land
- Life-Study Message Reading Schedule: Life-Study of Matthew, Messages 63-64
 1. Before Christ's coming, one of each two men and two women will be taken and the other left. How do we know these two men and two women are believers? What is the difference between being taken and left behind? How can we properly be watchful and prepare for the Lord's coming?
 2. How does the faithful and prudent slave differ in their treatment of the master's household or fellow slaves compared to the evil slave? Does being thrown into the outer darkness for the evil slave imply eternal perdition? How can we give food to the master's household at the proper time?
 3. Based on the parable of the virgins in Matthew 25, what is the reason for one being taken and the other left from in Matthew 24? What is our way of being watchful and preparing for the Lord's coming?
